

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Youth GED

So you need your GED. Don't stress.
Goodwill will get you ready to nail your tests—for free.

GED

TEST PREPARATION

Our Youth GED® program is designed for young adults between the ages of 16 and 24, providing hands-on and classroom education as an alternative pathway for students to realize their full potential and pass their four-part GED test.

Goodwill's GED test prep program is free to all eligible participants in the Kelso and Longview School Districts, and includes support services with career and financial counseling.

This class offers online learning, connections to valuable resources, job and career planning, and financial assistance to pay for your GED exams.

Eligibility requirements are that you're:

- Between the ages 16-24
- Not currently enrolled in high school
- Have not graduated from high school
- Have missed graduation date
- Have an internet connected device (some assistance may be available)

Enroll anytime!

Visit goodwillwa.org/GED or email: careerhub@goodwillwa.org or call our message line: 253-573-6508

Class & Content

This class offers structured curriculum delivered by qualified basic skills instructors focusing on:

- Language Arts
- Social Studies
- Science
- Mathematics
- Reading Comprehension
- Writing Skills

Practice testing with questions that are just like the real ones!

