

Community Support Programs

Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP)

SCSEP helps low-income, unemployed individuals 55 and older find work, matching eligible older adults with part-time training assignments at non-profits or government agencies. The plan serves the needs of the whole family as well as caregivers, so they can achieve job placement, retention, and long-term financial stability.

Regional services are offered.

Goodwill Union Gap Work Opportunity Center available by appointment only.

To call and email us:
phone: 253-573-6584
email: careerhub@goodwillwa.org

1907 S. 1st Street
Union Gap, WA 98903

To find out more about what
Goodwill's Union Gap Work Opportunity Center offers, scan this with your phone camera and tap the link to a form and sign up!

Find a career path
that fits you at Goodwill
Union Gap Work
Opportunity Center

Goodwill
Olympics & Rainier Region

Vocational Offerings

Job Resource Room

The Resource Room is available to the general public for ongoing job search and is equipped with multiple computers and printers.

Create an effective resume and cover letter to upload or take with you to your next interview, hiring event, or job fair!

Workshops

Workshops are 60 to 90 minutes depending on topic and offered weekly.

Topics include:

- Email
- Internet use and safety
- Typing
- A.I.
- Microsoft
- Improving Credit
- Money Management
- and more!

Career Readiness, Education, and Development (CRED)

In CRED, you will learn all the necessary capabilities to be successful at your job, from basic budgeting to good customer service. You'll also learn how to make good career decisions, build a portfolio, and practice your work readiness skills, with the goal of building confidence in taking your next career step.

In the course you will cover the topics:

- Emotional intelligence
- Career skills and terminology
- Goals and career exploration
- Social media and networking
- Resume and cover letters
- Job applications and Interviewing

Intermediate Office Skills

This 10-week hybrid program combines weekly in-person instruction with required online coursework, preparing participants for administrative, office support, customer service, and business technology careers by building intermediate-level digital and workplace skills. Topics include Microsoft Office, document creation, and foundational leadership skills.

Industry Pathways

Construction and Trades

Explore a career in the skilled trades through this two-week, in-person class offered Monday-Friday. Participants explore construction careers while earning relevant certifications.

Food and Hospitality

Explore careers in restaurants, hotels, tourism, and customer service in this two-week, in-person class offered Monday-Friday. Participants earn a Washington State Food Worker Card, plus additional certifications.

Healthcare Support

Explore a meaningful career in healthcare with this two-week, in-person class offered Monday-Friday. Participants gain foundational healthcare knowledge to while earning industry recognized certifications.

Warehouse and Manufacturing

Explore careers in warehouse, logistics, and manufacturing through this two-week, in-person class offered Monday-Friday. Participants build workplace readiness while earning certifications.